

Registration Form EEAA General Assembly 2011

Name _____

Email address _____

School and Country _____

Position _____

Conference options

- Conference
- Conference + Tour
- Conference + Single Room
- Conference + Single Room + Tour

Indicate payment status

- I have sent my full fee
- I will send my fee shortly (note that your reservation is not confirmed until the fee is paid)

Fill out this card and mail it to Contact address (over). You may also register by email by sending the above information to office@eeaa.eu

How to reserve your place

To register you must submit a completed Registration Form (either by post or email). You must also pay your fee in full, according to the Fee Schedule indicated in this flier. Places at the indicated fees are limited, so please reserve by July 2011. Each school may send no more than 2 delegates.

Please use the following bank coordinates for payment, specifying your name and the fee you are paying ("Conference"; "Conference + Tour"; "Conference + Single Room"; or "Conference + Single + Tour"). Sorry, but cheques will not be accepted.

Horst-Walter Born
Volksbank Dreilaendereck EG
DE-79539 Loerrach
BIC: VOLODE66
IBAN: DE93 6839 0000 0001 2027 66

In case of cancellation before 31 August 2011, you will be reimbursed 50% of your fee.

Contact:

Marvin Oxenham - EEAA Coordinator
Green Lane, Northwood, Middlesex
HA6 2UW, UK
office@eeaa.eu www.eeaa.eu

2011 General Assembly of the European Evangelical Accrediting
Association (EEAA)

C
HA
LLEN
GINGAVI
SION OF THE O
LOGICAL EDUCATION

With Alister McGrath
27-29 October - London

Challenging...

Theological education today is both a challenging vision and a vision to be challenged. This will be the theme developed by Dr Alister McGrath during the plenary session of the EEAA General Assembly in 2011.

(Dr Henri Blocher, Dr Rolfe Hille and Dr Chris Wright will be responding)

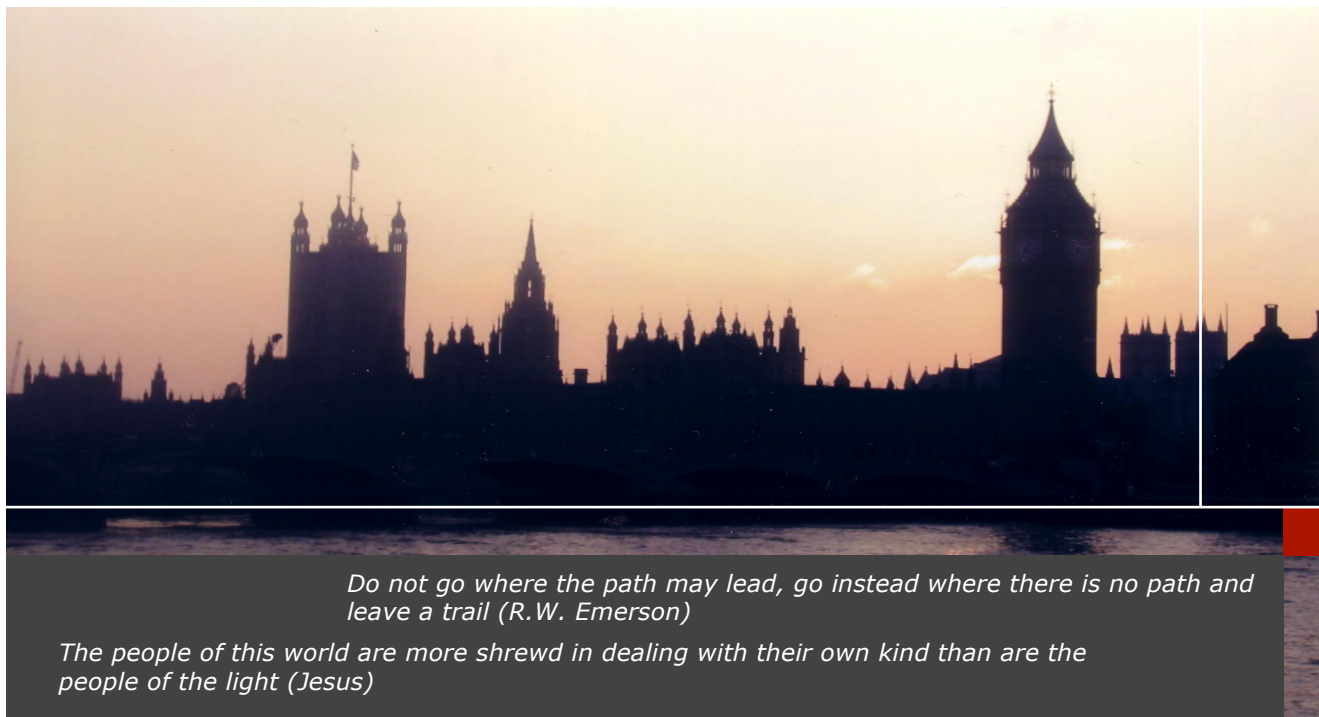

Also plan on being challenged by the following seminars specifically aimed at theological educators:

1. Challenges from EU perspectives
2. Challenges from new church expressions (emerging church)
3. The challenges of evaluation and quality enhancement
4. Challenges, opportunities and perspectives in the EHEA
5. The challenges of crisis episodes in theological education
6. Challenges relating to Islam
7. Challenges, change and future in theological education
8. The challenge of educational technology and DL

High Leigh Conference Centre

<http://www.cct.org.uk/smartweb/high-leigh/introduction>

Do not go where the path may lead, go instead where there is no path and leave a trail (R.W. Emerson)

The people of this world are more shrewd in dealing with their own kind than are the people of the light (Jesus)

The European Evangelical Accrediting Association is an evangelical quality assurance network that has operated in Europe since 1978. The EEAA General Assembly is a time where a large number of evangelical theological educators from all Europe meet for networking, equipping, fellowship and mutual encouragement.

The venue Located just north of London with excellent travel links, High Leigh (Hoddeson) offers a relaxed and peaceful environment within 40 acres of lawns, parkland and woodland. There is a limited availability of single rooms, and they will be allocated on a first-come basis.

A shuttle will be arranged from the Railway station of Broxbourne (regular service from London Liverpool Street). You will receive travel directions when you register.

Programme and London Tour

The General Assembly will begin with arrivals on Thursday afternoon (27th October) and will end on Saturday (29th) with breakfast.

For those wishing to stay on an extra day, a tour of London is being organized for Saturday (29th). The tour includes transport, sack lunch, evening meal in London and extra night at High Leigh (departures Sunday morning, 30th October).

Fees

Conference (in standard room 2+) (27-29 October)	210€
Conference (in standard room 2+) + London Tour (27-30 October)	330€
Conference in single room (27-29 October)	250€
Conference in single room + London Tour (27-30 October)	380€